

Grandeear's Song

Grandeear sang this
Aug. 20, 1968
and I wrote it.

A preacher went out hunt'in
'Twas on a Sunday morn
'Coarse it was agin his religion
But he took his gun along
He shot his self some very fine quail and one big measly hare
And on his way returning home Met a great big Greasley bear.

The Bear marched out in the middle of the road and walked with the Coon you see The Coon got so excited he climbed the persimmon tree
The Bear sat down upon the ground
The Coon climbed out on a limb and he cast his eyes to de Lord in the skies and these words he said to Him.

"Oh Lord, did you deliver Daniel from the Lion's Den
And deliverd Jonah from the belly of the whale and den
The Hebrew chil'un from the fiery furnace So de Good Book do declare
Oh Lord, if you can't help me
For goodness sake don't ya help that bear."
